DIVIDENDS

One of the main rights of shareholders is the right to receive a share of the Bank's net profit in the form of dividend payments. Dividend payments are approved by the AGM, following recommendations made by the Supervisory Council. In determining the recommended dividend amount, the Supervisory Council is guided by the amount of the Bank's net profit and by the Dividend Policy (approved by VTB Bank Supervisory Council, Minutes No 2 as of 29 January 2011). The Bank's Charter also provides for the possibility of the payment of interim dividends for the first three, six and nine months of the reporting year to holders of issued preference shares.

The record date for persons entitled to a share of the Bank's net profit is determined at the General Meeting of Shareholders, but can be no earlier than 10 days before the date when the decision to pay dividends is due to be made, and no later than 20 days following such a decision. The time period for the payment of dividends depends on the type of registered shareholder. Dividend payments to nominal shareholders and trustees listed on the shareholder register must be made within 10 working days, while dividend payments to other registered shareholders must be made within 25 working days of the date when the list of persons entitled to dividends is compiled.

Shareholders appearing on the register receive dividends by bank transfer to their accounts (if bank details are provided) or by postal order. Shareholders whose rights are registered via nominal shareholders receive dividends in monetary form in accordance with the procedure stipulated in Russian laws on securities. The applicable law does not provide for dividend payments in cash.

Any dividends accrued but unclaimed by shareholders within a period of three calendar years are subject to allocation back to the profit of the Bank. Therefore, if a shareholder does not claim his or her accrued dividends within three years, he or she loses the right to receive them. If dividends are transferred to a shareholder's bank account, they are considered paid.
